

Adding a "feed" to a Portal Site

A brief tutorial

Computer Productivity Consulting Richard G. Myers

- If you know a site supports RSS, you can manually enter the RSS URL above and it will be added to your page. Not sure of the RSS URL? Follow these 5 steps:
 - Go to the site or do a quick web search if you don't know the URL.
 - Look for a little orange button like this: This indicates the site syndicates its content. Usually, the button points directly to the site's RSS file. (The page looks like raw code, but don't let it scare you!)
 - To find the RSS URL, right-click on the orange XML button to "Copy Shortcut." Or click on the "XML" button and use "Ctrl-C" on your keyboard to copy the URL found in the address bar of your browser.
 - Return to this page, use "Ctrl-V" to paste the URL into the field above, and click "Add".
 - A valid RSS URL will take you to a preview page where you can see how the module will look on your page. If you like what you see, confirm by clicking "Add."
 - Congratulations! You've just added a new feed to your page.
- Can't Find RSS URL?
 - Feedster, one of the well-known RSS directories on the Web, offers a new service called FeedFinder. Enter the URL for any web site and FeedFinder shows you what RSS feeds are available.
- No RSS? Ask them to add it.
 - You can email the site directly to request RSS content. Or you can suggest the site via the helpful submit form at Syndic8.com, a site dedicated to content syndication. One of Syndic8's RSS evangelists will contact the site on your behalf.
